Our Vision

Hollister is the heart of San Benito County, a place where people come to live, work, and play. People choose to live here because of the strong sense of community, diversity, and wide range of housing types for all income levels. Framed by the Diablo range and surrounding agricultural uses, Hollister preserves its historic past and ensures that new development complements the small-town charm. High quality design and strong architectural character attract people to retail areas and contribute to a sense of place.

Known as an innovation hub, Hollister attracts businesses to its downtown, its industrial park and its airport so that they can collaborate with each other and benefit from the diverse labor pool. Tourists add to Hollister's economic diversity by dining, shopping, and staying in Hollister while en route to Pinnacles National Park and the surrounding wineries. The availability of high-quality jobs means that residents can work locally, freeing up time that might otherwise be spent commuting.

Traveling by car, bus, bicycle, or on foot are all easy in Hollister. Neighborhoods, schools, shops, jobs, healthcare, and public services are connected by bikeways, walkways and transit lines.

Community life flourishes in Hollister. A vibrant Downtown, lively arts scene, inviting parks and public spaces, and activities and services for people of all ages help forge connection and well-being.

New growth is primarily focused in existing urban areas or adjacent to existing development, to enhance connectedness and preserve active agricultural uses and open space areas. The City coordinates with the County of San Benito and other local agencies to ensure growth is well-planned and provided with sufficient services.

Hollister is a unique and diverse city that is, and will remain, a place to call home for generations to come.
